Booking & Deposits

Once a booking is accepted by both parties, that being Move Sports, the event organiser, Move Sports will then send a Booking Form with the terms and conditions to be completed, signed and returned as early as possible. The Booking Form should be returned to Move Sports together with the deposit as stated on the final quote. The quoted price takes into account a minimum number of people travelling, please be aware that surcharges may be applied in cases of under-occupancy. Please be aware that until a booking is received and payment has cleared Move Sports cannot secure the booking. Once a Booking Form and deposit has been received the tour is secured.

Move Sports cannot be held liable for the cancellation of matches/training sessions due to circumstances outside of our control including weather conditions or any other factor.

Payment

Move Sports will inform, in writing, the training camp organiser the payment dates for deposits and final payments once the Tour price has been agreed. Total payment is normally due no later than 30 days before the touring dates departure, however if is only booked 8 weeks prior to departure then payment must be made in full. If the group have requested extras for a ticketed event such as a football match, theme park or theatre show, tickets will need to be paid for upfront and are not refundable.

Please see below the standard payment schedule:

Payment Due Dates	Payment To Be Made (%)
1st Deposit (until February 26th 2015)	50% of Total Amount
2nd Deposit (until March 2th 2015)	50% of Total Amount

If payment is not received on time, a member of the Move Sports team will get in contact with the group organiser to resolve the issue and avoid cancellation. If payments are not made after this contact, Move Sports reserves the right to treat the booking as cancelled by the group organiser. In this case, Move Sports will be entitled to keep all deposits paid or due at that time. If Move Sports do not cancel straight away because of promises made of payments, cancellation charges will still apply depending on the date Move Sports reasonably treat the booking as cancelled.

Please note that Move Sports agreement with suppliers require that deposits are made for touring groups arrangements at various times. If Move Sports do not pay the suppliers that are to be used in conjunction with the touring dates as requested, the supplier has the right to cancel. Therefore, even if Move Sports do not cancel straight away because promises have been made by the group organiser, please be aware that the supplier may cancel the booking and Move Sports will have no liability towards the group and the organiser. This situation will be treated as being cancelled by the group organiser and thus liable for the cancellation charges due at the date the booking is cancelled.

It is the group organisers' responsibility to have complete and final numbers and inform Move Sports no less than 4 weeks prior to departure. If additional persons have been added, all appropriate deposits must be made at the time of submitting the final numbers. If you alter the number of people travelling, the total tour price will be altered accordingly and we will issue a supplementary pro-forma invoice for the revised total amount.
